After Storms, Watch Out for Scam

Natural disasters and severe weather can create opportunities for fraud in their wake, occurring at a time when people may be especially vulnerable, or targeting charitable intentions.

Scammers use phone, text, mail, email, and even go door to door to target residents of affected areas following hurricanes and damaging storms.

5 Emergency Preparedness Tips To Lead Through Crisis

Whether you are leading a business, church, or school, no organization is immune from a workplace violence incident. Most are unprepared, which puts the organization, their employees and visitors at significant risk and makes them highly vulnerable to the possibility of a *workplace violence incident. Acts of violence and other injuries are currently the third-leading cause of fatal occupational injuries in the United States.

Having a plan for what to do in the event of workplace violence can help to ensure that possible tragedy is minimized, contained, addressed, and resolved as quickly as possible.
